Summary

The Financial Services and General Government (FSGG) appropriations bill includes funding for the Department of the Treasury, the Executive Office of the President (EOP), the judiciary, the District of Columbia, and more than two dozen independent agencies. Among those independent agencies are the General Services Administration (GSA), the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the Small Business Administration (SBA), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and the United States Postal Service (USPS). The Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) is funded in the House through the Agriculture appropriations bill and in the Senate through the Financial Services and General Government bill. CFTC funding is included in all FSGG funding tables in this report. For FY2013, the President has requested $45.83 billion for agencies funded through FSGG appropriations, an increase of $1.41 billion above amounts enacted for FY2012.

FY2013 Appropriations by Title

Title I: The Department of the Treasury

Title I of the FSGG appropriations bill provides funding for the Department of the Treasury and its bureaus, including the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The President requested $13.24 billion for the Treasury Department for FY2013, an increase of $1.03 billion above FY2012 enacted amounts. The President's request includes a proposal to create a new bureau, the Fiscal Service, which would result from the merger of the Financial Management Service and the Bureau of the Public Debt. According to the budget request, the new bureau would reduce duplicative functions. Table 2 lists the enacted amounts for FY2010, FY2011, and FY2012, as well as amounts requested by the President for FY2013.

Note: FY2011 enacted rescission was applied to the Partnership Fund for Program Integrity Account. Under Federal Drug Control Programs amounts for FY2012, there are two rescissions totaling $11,328,000: $6,083,000 from the cancellation of prior year balances in the Other Federal Drug Control Programs account and $5,245,000 from the cancellation of prior year balances in the Counterdrug Technology Assessment Center account. Amounts in the table are rounded. The actual amounts for White House Repair and Restoration, for FY2012 and FY2013 are $750,000 and the actual amount for Unanticipated Needs for FY2012 is $988,000.

Title III: The Judiciary

Title III of the FSGG appropriations bill provides funding for the judicial branch of the federal government, including the Supreme Court. As a co-equal branch of government, the judiciary presents its budget to the President, who transmits it to Congress unaltered. The President's FY2013 budget request for the judiciary is $7.19 billion, which is $219 million more than appropriated for FY2012. Table 4 lists the enacted amounts for FY2010, FY2011, and FY2012, as well as amounts requested by the President for FY2013.

Title V: Independent Agencies

Title V provides funding for more than two dozen independent agencies which perform a wide range of functions, including the management of federal real property (GSA), the regulation of financial institutions (SEC), and mail delivery (USPS). The President's FY2013 budget request includes $24.05 billion for independent agencies that receive their funding through the FSGG appropriations bill, an increase of $159 million over FY2012 funding levels. Table 6 lists the enacted amounts for FY2010, FY2011, and FY2012, as well as amounts requested by the President for FY2013.

Notes: All figures are rounded, and columns also may not equal the total due to rounding.

- a. The CFTC is funded in the House through the Agriculture appropriations bill and in the Senate through the Financial Services and General Government bill.
- b. The FCC's total appropriations, shown in parentheses, are funded entirely by offsetting collections.
- c. Budget authority transferred to FDIC is not included in total FSGG appropriations; it is counted as part of the budget authority in the appropriation account from which it came.
- d. GSA's real property activities are funded through the Federal Buildings Fund (FBF), a multi-billion dollar revolving fund into which rental payments from federal agencies that lease GSA space are deposited. Revenue in the FBF is then made available by Congress each year to pay for GSA's real property activities. A negative total for the FBF occurs when the amount of funds made available for expenditure in a fiscal year is less than the amount of new revenue expected to be deposited.
