Summary

The legislative branch appropriations bill provides funding for the Senate; House of Representatives; Joint Items; Capitol Police; Office of Compliance; Congressional Budget Office (CBO); Architect of the Capitol (AOC); Library of Congress (LOC), including the Congressional Research Service (CRS); Government Publishing Office (GPO); Government Accountability Office (GAO); and Open World Leadership Center.

The legislative branch FY2016 budget request of $4.528 billion was submitted on February 2, 2015. By law, the President includes the requests submitted by the legislative branch in the annual budget without change. A budget amendment was transmitted by the President to Congress on April 14, 2015.

The House and Senate Appropriations Committees' Legislative Branch Subcommittees held hearings in February and March to consider the FY2016 legislative branch requests.

The House subcommittee held a markup of its bill on April 23, 2015. The full committee met on April 30, 2015, and agreed to (1) a manager's amendment; (2) an amendment establishing a House Technology Task Force; and (3) an amendment increasing the funding for Open World (offset from funding from the Architect of the Capitol, Capitol Power Plant). All were adopted by voice vote. One additional amendment was defeated (21-29) and two were withdrawn. The bill would provide $3.341 billion (not including Senate items), equivalent to the FY2015 level. It was ordered reported by voice vote (H.R. 2250, H.Rept. 114-110).

Legislative branch funding peaked in FY2010, and the FY2016 House-reported bill currently remains below the FY2009 level of $4.501 billion. The Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (P.L. 113-235, Division H, enacted December 16, 2014) provides $4.300 billion, an increase of $41.7 million (1.0%) from the FY2014 funding level of $4.259 billion. The FY2013 act funded legislative branch accounts at the FY2012 enacted level, with some exceptions (also known as "anomalies"), less across-the-board rescissions that applied to all appropriations in the act, and not including sequestration reductions implemented on March 1. The FY2012 level represented a decrease of $236.9 million (-5.2%) from the FY2011 level, which itself represented a $125.1 million decrease (-2.7%) from FY2010.

The smallest of the appropriations bills, the legislative branch comprises approximately 0.4% of total discretionary budget authority.

FY2016 Consideration: Overview of Actions

The first section of this report provides an overview of the consideration of FY2016 legislative branch appropriations, with subsections covering each action, including

- the initial submission of the request on February 2, 2015;
- hearings held by the House and Senate Legislative Branch Subcommittees;
- the House subcommittee markup on April 23, 2015;
- the House Appropriations Committee markup on April 30, 2015; and
- adoption of 302(b) suballocations.

It is followed by a section on prior year actions and funding, which contains historical tables.

The report then addresses the FY2016 budget requests, hearings, and requested administrative language or other major funding issues for individual legislative branch agencies and entities.

Finally, Table 4 through Table 8 list enacted funding levels for FY2015 and requested levels for FY2016, while the Appendix lists House, Senate, and conference bills and reports; public law numbers; and enactment dates since FY1998.

Submission of FY2016 Budget Request on February 2, 2015, and Budget Amendment on April 14, 2015

The Budget for Fiscal Year 2016 was submitted on February 2, 2015. It contains a request for $4.528 billion in new budget authority for legislative branch activities.¹

¹ Office of Management and Budget, Appendix, Budget of the United States Government, FY2016 (Washington: GPO, 2014), pp. 13-44, available at <https://www.whitehouse.gov/sites/default/files/omb/budget/fy2016/assets/leg.pdf>.

By law, the legislative branch request is submitted to the President and included in the budget without change.²

A budget amendment was transmitted by the President to Congress on April 14, 2015, also without change. The amendment decreased the overall Senate request by $2.5 million, with smaller decreases for the two joint offices with funding disbursed by the Secretary of the Senate.³

Senate and House Hearings on the FY2016 Budget Requests

Table 2 lists the dates of hearings of the legislative branch subcommittees in 2015. Prepared statements of witnesses were posted on the subcommittee websites.

Note:

- a. The Open World Leadership Center was discussed during the House hearing on the Library of Congress, but no Open World staff provided testimony.
- b. The House subcommittee announced that it would accept programmatic and language submissions from Members through March 18, 2015.

² Pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 1105, “Estimated expenditures and proposed appropriations for the legislative branch and the judicial branch to be included in each budget ... shall be submitted to the President ... and included in the budget by the President without change.” Division C of the FY2012 Consolidated Appropriations Act (P.L. 112-74) added language to 31 U.S.C. 1107 relating to budget amendments, stating: “The President shall transmit promptly to Congress without change, proposed deficiency and supplemental appropriations submitted to the President by the legislative branch and the judicial branch.”

³ The other decreases were for the Joint Economic Committee (-$28,000) and the Office of Congressional Accessibility Services (-$7,000). A decrease for the U.S. Tax Court (-$200,000), which appears within the legislative branch budget request but is funded through the Financial Services and General Government Appropriations Act, was also included in this amendment. House Appropriations Committee Subcommittee on Legislative Branch Markup

On April 23, 2015, the House Appropriations Committee Subcommittee on Legislative Branch held a markup of the FY2016 bill. The subcommittee recommended $3.341 billion, not including Senate items. No amendments were offered.

House Appropriations Committee Markup

On April 30, 2015, the House Appropriations Committee held a markup of the FY2016 bill. At $3.341 billion (not including Senate items, which are determined by the Senate), the bill would provide the same level of funding as in FY2015.

Three amendments were adopted, all by voice vote, including

- a manager's amendment which addressed report language related to committee room renovations, encouraging the Capitol Police to relax enforcement of sledding restriction on Capitol Hill, and communications and coordination between the Capitol Police and the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority and other first responders;
- an amendment offered to the report by Representative Wasserman Schultz directing the House Chief Administrative Officer to establish a House Technology Task Force, which is to identify opportunities to enhance coordination of information technology efforts; and
- an amendment offered by Representative Fortenberry increasing funding for the Open World Leadership Center by $4.7 million, offset by a reduction to the Capitol Power Plant. The amendment would also insert language limiting any funds supporting Russian participants to those "engaging in free market development, humanitarian activities, and civic engagement, and ... not ... officials of the central government of Russia."

Additional amendments, one defeated and two withdrawn, included

- an amendment offered by Representative Wasserman Schultz directing the House Chief Administrative Officer to issue a solicitation for, and select, a food services contractor who provides a livable wage. The amendment was defeated, 21 yeas and 29 nays;
- an amendment offered and withdrawn by Representative Quigley related to the publication of a list of nonconfidential CRS products; and
- an amendment offered and withdrawn by Representative Honda related to the Office of Compliance and reports on discrimination based on sex and gender identification.

The bill was ordered reported by voice vote (H.R. 2250, H.Rept. 114-110).

Congressional Caps on Legislative Branch Funding: 302(b) Reports

After allocation of a total spending ceiling (referred to as a 302(a) allocation),⁴ the House and Senate Appropriations Committees generally consider separate budget allocations for their subcommittees, including the legislative branch. These suballocations (referred to as 302(b) suballocations) include discretionary and mandatory funds. This process is derived from the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. Total levels are established by the House and Senate budget resolutions, and they may be influenced by additional legislation (e.g., the Budget Control Act of 2011, P.L. 112-25).

The House Appropriations Committee met to mark up its proposed suballocations on April 22, 2015. A motion to amend the suballocations was defeated 20-29, and the committee approved them by voice vote. In its Report on the Suballocation of Budget Allocations for Fiscal Year 2016 (H.Rept. 114-97), issued April 29, the House Appropriations Committee indicated that it has allocated $4.435 billion in total budget authority for the legislative branch, including $4.300 billion in discretionary spending and $135 million in mandatory spending.⁵ This is equivalent to 0.4% of “general purpose” (i.e., not including “Global War on Terror”) discretionary spending, and 0.2% of total (all discretionary and mandatory) spending allocated to the House Appropriations Committee subcommittees.

Funding in Prior Years: Brief Overview

FY2015

FY2015 funding was provided in Division H of the Consolidated and Further Continuing Appropriations Act, 2015 (P.L. 113-235), which was enacted on December 16, 2014. The $4.300 billion provided by the act represented an increase of $41.7 million (1.0%) from FY2014 and $164.9 million (-3.7%) less than the request.

FY2014

Neither a legislative branch appropriations bill, nor a continuing appropriations resolution (CR), containing FY2014 funding was enacted prior to the beginning of the fiscal year on October 1, 2013. A funding gap, which resulted in a partial government shutdown, ensued for 16 days. The funding gap was terminated by the enactment of a CR (P.L. 113-46) on October 17, 2013. The CR provided funding through January 15, 2014.⁶ Following enactment of a temporary continuing resolution on January 15, 2014 (P.L. 113-73), a consolidated appropriations bill was enacted on January 17 (P.L. 113-76), providing $4.259 billion for the legislative branch for FY2014.

⁵ U.S. Congress, House Committee on Appropriations, Report on the Suballocation of Budget Allocations for Fiscal Year 2016, 114th Cong., 1st sess., April 29, 2015, H.Rept. 114-97 (Washington: GPO, 2015), p. 2.

⁶ The legislative branch previously experienced a funding gap in FY1996 (November 14-18, 1995).

FY2013

FY2013 funding of approximately $4.061 billion was provided by P.L. 113-6, which was signed into law on March 26, 2013.⁷ The act funded legislative branch accounts at the FY2012 enacted level, with some exceptions (also known as “anomalies”), and not including across-the-board rescissions required by Section 3004 of P.L. 113-6. Section 3004 was intended to eliminate any amount by which the new budget authority provided in the act exceeded the FY2013 discretionary spending limits in Section 251(c)(2) of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act, as amended by the Budget Control Act of 2011 and the American Taxpayer Relief Act of 2012. Subsequent to the enactment of P.L. 113-6, OMB calculated that additional rescissions of 0.032% of security budget authority and 0.2% of nonsecurity budget authority would be required. The act did not alter the sequestration reductions implemented on March 1, which reduced most legislative branch accounts by 5.0%.⁸ The accompanying OMB report indicated a dollar amount of budget authority to be canceled in each account containing nonexempt funds.⁹

FY2012 and Prior

Division G of the FY2012 Consolidated Appropriations Act (P.L. 112-74) provided $4.307 billion for the legislative branch. This level was $236.9 million (-5.2%) below the FY2011 enacted level. P.L. 112-10 provided $4.543 billion for legislative branch operations in FY2011. This level represented a $125.1 million decrease from the $4.668 billion provided in the FY2010 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act (P.L. 111-68) and the FY2010 Supplemental Appropriations Act (P.L. 111-212). The FY2009 Omnibus Appropriations Act provided $4.402 billion. In FY2009, an additional $25.0 million was provided for the Government Accountability Office (GAO) in the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009.¹⁰ P.L. 111-32, the FY2009 Supplemental Appropriations Act, also contained funding for a new Capitol Police radio system ($71.6 million) and additional funding for the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) ($2.0 million).¹¹

As seen in Table 3, the legislative branch budget in constant dollars remains below the FY2004 level.

⁷ FY2013 level from the CBO cost estimate for “Continuing Appropriations Resolution, 2014 (H.J.Res. 59), Including the Amendment Reported by the House Committee on Rules on September 18, 2013 (H.Res. 352) Discretionary spending (in millions of dollars)” (<http://www.cbo.gov/sites/default/files/cbofiles/attachments/hjres59amendment.pdf>), which lists a total for legislative branch budget authority of $4.061 billion, noting that it “includes effects of the 2013 sequestration.” This bill contained a small anomaly for the legislative branch.

Notes: These figures exclude permanent budget authorities and contain supplementals and rescissions. Total does not include permanent budget authorities, including funding for Member pay, that are not included in the annual legislative branch appropriations bill. Constant dollars calculated using the “Total Non-Defense” deflator in Table 10.1—Gross Domestic Product and Deflators Used in the Historical Tables: 1940–2020 in the President’s FY2016 budget request.

- a. This figure contains appropriations provided by P.L. 108-83 (the FY2004 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act). Additional FY2004 provisions which did not contain appropriations were contained in P.L. 108-199 (the FY2004 Consolidated Appropriations Act).
- b. This number contains appropriations provided by P.L. 108-447 (the Consolidated Appropriations Act, FY2005, adjusted by a 0.80% rescission also contained in P.L. 108-447), and P.L. 109-13 (the FY2005 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act).
- c. This number contains appropriations provided by P.L. 109-55 (the FY2006 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act, adjusted by a 1.0% rescission contained in P.L. 109-148), and P.L. 109-234 (the FY2006 Emergency Supplemental Appropriations Act).
- d. This number contains appropriations provided by P.L. 110-5 (the Revised Continuing Appropriations Resolution, 2007), and funding for the House of Representatives, Government Accountability Office, U.S. Capitol Police, Architect of the Capitol, and gratuity payments provided in P.L. 110-28 (the U.S. Troop Readiness, Veterans’ Care, Katrina Recovery, and Iraq Accountability Appropriations Act, 2007).
- e. This number contains appropriations provided by P.L. 110-161 (the FY2009 Omnibus Appropriations Act), $25.0 million for the Government Accountability Office provided by P.L. 111-5 (the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009), and $73.6 million provided by P.L. 111-32 for the U.S. Capitol Police and the Congressional Budget Office (the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2009).
- f. This number contains appropriations provided by P.L. 111-68 (the FY2010 Legislative Branch Appropriations Act), and $12.96 million in supplemental appropriations provided for the U.S. Capitol Police in P.L. 111-212 (the Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2010).
- g. This number does not include scorekeeping adjustment.
- h. FY2013 level obtained from the CBO cost estimate for “Continuing Appropriations Resolution, 2014 (H.J.Res. 59), Including the Amendment Reported by the House Committee on Rules on September 18, 2013 (H.Res. 352) Discretionary spending (in millions of dollars)” (<http://www.cbo.gov/sites/default/files/cbofiles/attachments/hjres59amendment.pdf>), which lists a total for legislative branch budget authority of $4.061 billion, noting that it “includes effects of the 2013 sequestration.” This bill contained a small anomaly for the legislative branch.

FY2016 Legislative Branch Funding Issues¹²

The following sections discuss the various legislative branch accounts as well as issues discussed during the hearings on the budget requests.

Senate

Overall Funding

The Senate requested $930.4 million for FY2016 (including the budget amendment), a 7.6% increase over the $864.3 million provided in FY2015.

Additional information on the Senate account is presented in Table 5.

Senate Committee Funding

Appropriations for Senate committees are contained in two accounts:

- The inquiries and investigations account contains funds for all Senate committees except Appropriations. The Senate requested $135.7 million for inquiries and investigations (including the budget amendment), a 1.9% increase from the FY2015 level of $133.3 million.
- The Committee on Appropriations account contains funds for the Senate Appropriations Committee. The Senate requested $15.4 million, an increase of $289,000 (+1.9%) from the $15.1 million provided in FY2015.

Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account

The Senators' Official Personnel and Office Expense Account (SOPOEA) provides each Senator with funds to administer an office. It consists of an administrative and clerical assistance allowance, a legislative assistance allowance, and an official office expense allowance. The funds may be used for any category of expenses, subject to limitations on official mail.

The Senate requested $438.2 million for FY2016 (including the budget amendment), an increase of $48.2 million (12.4%) from the $390.0 million provided in FY2014 and FY2015.

Highlights of the Senate Hearing on the FY2016 Budget Request

At the March 11, 2015, Senate hearing, the subcommittee discussed the request for a new Senate financial management system, threat assessments and coordination with other entities, preparations for dignitary visits as well as costs, the impact of current spending caps on office operations, an outage of Senate computer systems, and recent disruptions in Senate hearings.

¹² This section contains information on the budget requests, hearings, and requested administrative provisions of the House, Senate, and legislative branch agencies and entities. If no hearing or administrative provision is discussed, then none was held (in the case of a hearing) or requested (in the case of a provision).

House of Representatives

Overall Funding

The House requested $1.18 billion for FY2016, equivalent to the FY2014 and FY2015 level.¹³ The FY2016 House-reported bill would continue this level.

Additional information on headings in the House of Representatives account is presented in Table 6.

House Committee Funding

Funding for House committees is contained in the appropriation heading “committee employees,” which comprises two subheadings.

The first subheading contains funds for personnel and nonpersonnel expenses of House committees, except the Appropriations Committee, as authorized by the House in a committee expense resolution. The House requested, and the House-reported bill would provide, $123.9 million, continuing the funding level provided for FY2014 and FY2015.

The second subheading contains funds for the personnel and nonpersonnel expenses of the Committee on Appropriations. The House requested, and the House-reported bill would provide, $23.3 million, the same level as provided for FY2014 and FY2015.

Members’ Representational Allowance¹⁴

The Members’ Representational Allowance (MRA) is available to support Members in their official and representational duties. For FY2016, $554.3 million was requested, the same level as provided for FY2014 and FY2015. The House-reported bill recommended this level.

Highlights of the House Hearing on the FY2016 Budget Request

At the February 25, 2015, hearing, the subcommittee discussed a review by the House Inspector General of procurement policies, funding for the Members’ Representational Allowance, current challenges facing House officers, litigation costs, security during the State of the Union, and addressing security threats.

Administrative Provisions

The House requested the continuation of administrative provisions from prior years related to unexpended balances from the MRA; limiting amounts available from the MRA for leased vehicles; and limiting or prohibiting the delivery of bills, resolutions, copies of the Congressional Record, the U.S. Code, the Statement of Disbursements, and the Daily Calendar.

Support Agency Funding

U.S. Capitol Police

The U.S. Capitol Police (USCP) are responsible for the security of the Capitol Complex, including the U.S. Capitol, the House and Senate office buildings, the U.S. Botanic Garden, and the Library of Congress buildings and adjacent grounds.

The USCP requested $378.9 million for FY2016, an increase of $30.9 million (+8.9%) from the $347.96 million the USCP received for FY2015.

Additional information on the USCP is presented in Table 7.

Appropriations for the police are contained in two accounts—a salaries account and a general expenses account. The salaries account contains funds for the salaries of employees; overtime pay; hazardous duty pay differential; and government contributions for employee health, retirement, Social Security, professional liability insurance, and other benefit programs. The general expenses account contains funds for expenses of vehicles; communications equipment; security equipment and its installation; dignitary protection; intelligence analysis; hazardous material response; uniforms; weapons; training programs; medical, forensic, and communications services; travel; relocation of instructors for the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center; and other administrative and technical support, among other expenses.

- Salaries—the Capitol Police requested $307.4 million for salaries, an increase of $20.9 million (+7.3%) from the $286.5 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would provide $300.0 million (+4.7%).
- General Expenses—the Capitol Police requested $71.5 million for general expenses, an increase of $10.0 million (+16.3%) from the $61.5 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would provide $69.0 million (+12.3%).

Another appropriation relating to the Capitol Police appears within the Architect of the Capitol account for Capitol Police buildings and grounds. USCP requested $28.2 million, an increase of $9.1 million (+47.4%) from the $19.2 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would provide $22.1 million (+15.1%).

Highlights of the House and Senate Hearings on the FY2016 Budget Request of the U.S. Capitol Police

On February 25, 2015, the House subcommittee discussed reports of morale issues, the role and mission of the Capitol Police, coordination with other police forces, the growth of the Capitol Police, and wait times for clearing security and entering the House office buildings.

At a hearing on March 12, 2015, the Senate subcommittee discussed officer morale, community relations, drones, and weighing overtime costs versus hiring new officers.

These hearings preceded the April 15, 2015, landing of a gyrocopter on the West Lawn of the Capitol. The Chief of the Capitol Police and the House Sergeant at Arms, however, testified at a House Oversight and Government Reform Committee hearing on this incident on April 29.

Administrative Provision

The Capitol Police requested one administrative provision, authorizing reimbursement from non-governmental entities for non-congressionally sponsored activities. This language amends 2 U.S.C. 1905, which addresses reimbursement for law enforcement assistance from any federal, state, or local government agency (including any agency of the District of Columbia). The House-reported bill contains this language.

Office of Compliance

The Office of Compliance is an independent and nonpartisan agency within the legislative branch. It was established to administer and enforce the Congressional Accountability Act, which was enacted in 1995.¹⁵ The act applies various employment and workplace safety laws to Congress and certain legislative branch entities.¹⁶

The Office of Compliance requested $4.0 million for FY2016, an increase of $61,000 (+1.5%) from the $3.96 million in the FY2015 act. The House Appropriations Committee recommended a continuation of the FY2015 level.

Congressional Budget Office (CBO)

CBO is a nonpartisan congressional agency created to provide objective economic and budgetary analysis to Congress. CBO cost estimates are required for any measure reported by a regular or conference committee that may vary revenues or expenditures.¹⁷

CBO requested $47.3 million, an increase of $1.6 million (+3.4%), from the $45.7 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would provide the requested level.

¹⁶ Among the office's activities are administration of a dispute resolution process, investigation and enforcement of occupational safety and health and disability provisions of the act, investigation of labor relations and enforcement of applicable provisions, and development of educational programs regarding the act's provisions.

¹⁷ The Congressional Budget Office is required to use estimates provided by the Joint Committee on Taxation for all revenue legislation (Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Control Act of 1985, P.L. 99-177, §273, 99 Stat. 1098, December 12, 1985; 2 U.S.C. §621 (et seq.)).

Highlights of the Senate Hearing on CBO's FY2016 Budget Request

At a March 9, 2015, hearing, the Senate subcommittee discussed requested staff increases, the use of contractors, a requested administrative provision related to nonimmigrant visas, scoring of Energy Savings Performance Contracts (ESPCs), cost estimates for exchanges established by the Affordable Care Act, and dynamic scoring.

The House did not hold a hearing on the CBO budget request.

Administrative Provisions

CBO requested two administrative provisions, including the following:

1. A provision that would make FY2016 funds available for the compensation of employees in specialty occupations with nonimmigrant visas. Similar authority has been requested, but not provided, since FY2012. The House-reported bill did not contain this language.
2. A provision that would make up to 50% of FY2016 unobligated balances available through the end of FY2017. Similar authority was requested, but not provided, in FY2015. The House-reported bill did not contain this language.

Architect of the Capitol

The Architect of the Capitol (AOC) is responsible for the maintenance, operation, development, and preservation of the U.S. Capitol Complex, which includes the Capitol and its grounds, House and Senate office buildings, Library of Congress buildings and grounds, Capitol Power Plant, Botanic Garden, Capitol Visitor Center, and Capitol Police buildings and grounds. The Architect is responsible for the Supreme Court buildings and grounds, but appropriations for their expenses are not contained in the legislative branch appropriations bill.

Overall Funding Levels

Operations of the Architect are funded in the following 10 accounts: general administration, Capitol building, Capitol grounds, Senate office buildings, House office buildings, Capitol Power Plant, Library buildings and grounds, Capitol Police buildings and grounds, Capitol Visitor Center, and Botanic Garden.

The Architect requested $661.8 million for FY2016, an increase of $61.5 million (+10.2%) from the FY2015 level of $600.3 million.

The House subcommittee mark would have provided $496.9 million, not including funding for the Senate office buildings (a requested $84.7 million). An amendment offered by Representative Fortenberry at the full committee markup, however, would decrease funding for the Architect of the Capitol, Capitol Power Plant budget by $4.7 million to increase the budget of the Open World Leadership Center. The House-reported bill would provide $492.2 million.

Additional funding information on the individual AOC accounts is presented in Table 8.

Highlights of the House and Senate Hearings on the FY2016 Budget of the Architect of the Capitol

Among the items discussed at the House subcommittee hearing on February 26, 2015, were the deferred maintenance backlog, the Library's request for additional storage at Fort Meade and construction of Storage Module #5, commemorative trees and the AOC effort to incorporate information about them on its website, Capitol Visitor Center cost overruns and an effort to not have similar overruns with the Cannon House Office Building renewal project, and the appropriate use of the historic buildings revitalization trust fund.

At a hearing on March 17, 2015, the Senate subcommittee discussed the restoration of the Capitol Dome, including expectations for completion before the January 2017 presidential inauguration; phasing and prioritization of projects, including the restoration for the Russell Senate Office Building; stone deterioration; conservation of Union Square and the Grant Memorial; the Alexander Calder "Mountains and Clouds" sculpture in the Hart Senate Office Building; contract oversight; and the AOC-requested administrative provision related to the acquisition of the 7.34 acre parcel of land at Fort Meade.

Administrative Provisions

Three administrative provisions were requested for FY2016, including the following:

1. A provision prohibiting the use of funds for bonuses for contractors behind schedule or over budget, first included in FY2015. The House-reported bill included this provision;
2. A provision prohibiting scrims containing photographs of building facades during restoration or construction projects performed by the Architect of the Capitol, first included in FY2015. The House-reported bill included this provision; and
3. A provision authorizing the Architect of the Capitol to acquire the 7.34-acre parcel of land from the Maryland State Highway Administration at Fort George G. Meade, MD. The House-reported bill included this provision.

One additional provision, requiring an approved plan by the Comptroller General and the House Appropriations Committee before certain obligations of funds for projects in excess of $5 million can be made, was also included in the House-reported bill.

Library of Congress (LOC)

The Library of Congress serves simultaneously as Congress's parliamentary library and the de facto national library of the United States. Its broader services to the nation include the acquisition, maintenance, and preservation of a collection of more than 158 million items¹⁸ in a wide range of traditional and new media; service to the general public and scholarly and library communities; administration of U.S. copyright laws by its Copyright Office; and administration of a national program to provide reading material to the blind and physically handicapped. Its direct services to Congress include the provision of legal research and law-related services by the Law Library of Congress, and a broad range of activities by the Congressional Research Service (CRS), including in-depth and nonpartisan public policy research, analysis, and legislative assistance for Members and committees and their staff; congressional staff training; information and statistics retrieval; and continuing legal education for Members of both chambers and congressional staff.

The Library requested $624.5 million for FY2016, an increase of $33.6 million (+5.7%) from the $590.9 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would provide $591.4 million (+0.1%). These figures do not include additional authority to spend receipts.¹⁹

The FY2016 budget contains the following headings:

- Salaries and expenses—The FY2015 act provided $413.0 million, the same level as recommended in the House-reported FY2016 bill. The Library requested $438.0 million (+6.1%) for FY2016. These figures do not include $6.35 million in authority to spend receipts.
- Copyright Office—The FY2015 act provided $20.7 million for the Copyright Office. The Library requested $23.1 million (+11.5%) for FY2016, and the House-reported bill would provide $21.2 million (+2.5%). These levels do not include authority to spend receipts, which would increase by $2.2 million (from $33.6 million to $35.8 million) in the FY2016 request and the House-reported bill.
- Congressional Research Service—The FY2015 act provided $106.9 million, the same level recommended in the FY2016 House-reported bill. CRS had requested $111.96 million, an increase of $5.0 million (+4.7%).
- Books for the Blind and Physically Handicapped—The FY2015 act provided $50.2 million, the same level recommended in the FY2016 House-reported bill. The Library requested $51.4 million (+2.3%) for FY2016.

The Architect's budget also contains funds for the Library buildings and grounds. The FY2015 act provided $42.2 million, and $65.8 million (+56.0%) was requested for FY2016. The House-reported bill would provide $36.6 million (-13.3%).

Highlights of the House and Senate Hearings on the FY2015 Budget of the Library of Congress

At a hearing on February 26, 2015, the House subcommittee discussed copyright modernization efforts, the Veterans and Civil Rights History Projects, the Library's collection growth, storage issues, and the ability of CRS to meet the needs of Congress with its current staffing level.

At a hearing on March 17, 2015, the Senate subcommittee discussed staffing requests, the Library's overseas offices, digitization, and the Copyright Office.

¹⁹ An example of receipts are fees paid to the LOC for copyright registration.

Administrative Provision

The Library requested authority to obligate funds for reimbursable and revolving fund activities, which was included in the House-reported bill. The regular provision establishing a ceiling for obligational authority for these activities ($186.0 million in FY2016) was included in the House-reported bill.

Government Publishing Office (GPO)²⁰

GPO requested $120.0 million for FY2016, nearly the same as provided in FY2015 ($119.99 million). The House-reported bill would provide $110.2 million (-8.1%).

GPO's budget authority is contained in three accounts. The FY2015 act renamed these accounts: (1) congressional printing and binding became congressional publishing, (2) Office of Superintendent of Documents (salaries and expenses) became Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents (salaries and expenses), and (3) the revolving fund became the Government Publishing Office Business Operations Revolving Fund.

1. Congressional publishing—GPO requested $79.7 million for FY2016, the same level as provided in FY2014 and FY2015 and in the FY2016 House-reported bill.
2. Public Information Programs of the Superintendent of Documents (salaries and expenses)—GPO requested, and the House-reported bill recommends, $30.5 million for FY2016. This level is $1.0 million less (-3.2%) than the FY2015 level.
3. Government Publishing Office Business Operations Revolving fund—the revolving fund supports the operation and maintenance of the Government Publishing Office.²¹ GPO requested $9.8 million, an increase of $1.0 million (+11.5%) from the $8.8 million provided in FY2015. The House-reported bill would not provide funding for the revolving fund.

Government Accountability Office (GAO)

GAO responds to requests for studies of federal government programs and expenditures. GAO may also initiate its own work.²²

GAO requested $553.1 million for FY2016 (+5.9%). The House-reported bill would provide $522.0 million, the same level as provided in FY2015.

These levels do not include offsetting collections ($25.5 million in the House-reported bill).²³

²³ Offsetting collections include funds derived from reimbursable audits and rental of space in the GAO building.

Administrative Provision

GAO requested one administrative provision, related to the sending and receiving of detailees to other branches or agencies on a reimbursable, partially reimbursable, or nonreimbursable basis. The House-reported bill contains a provision authorizing the receipt of detailees.

Highlights of House and Senate Hearings on the FY2016 GAO Budget

At the House hearing on February 25, 2015, the subcommittee discussed recent GAO products, including those related to the implementation of the Affordable Care Act.

The Senate subcommittee met on March 10, 2015, and discussed the professional background of employees, the operations of the newly established Center for Audit Excellence, and ways for Congress to respond to GAO's findings.

Open World Leadership Center

The Open World Leadership Center administers a program that supports democratic changes in other countries by inviting their leaders to observe democracy and free enterprise in the United States. The first program was authorized by Congress in 1999 to support the relationship between Russia and the United States. The program encouraged young federal and local Russian leaders to visit the United States and observe its government and society.

Established at the Library of Congress as the Center for Russian Leadership Development in 2000, the center was renamed the Open World Leadership Center in 2003, when the program was expanded to include specified additional countries.²⁴ In 2004, Congress further extended the program's eligibility to other countries designated by the center's board of trustees, subject to congressional consideration.²⁵ The center is housed in the Library and receives services from the Library through an inter-agency agreement.

As in previous years, Open World was the subject of lengthy discussion during a House FY2016 hearing,²⁶ the subcommittee markup, and the full committee markup.

Open World requested $8.0 million for FY2016, the same level it has requested since FY2014. The request represents an increase of 40.4% from the $5.7 million provided in FY2015. The House subcommittee mark proposed $1.0 million for an orderly shutdown of Open World. Language in the full committee print, released prior to the markup of the FY2016 bill, stated,²⁷

According to the 2003 act, the additional countries include "any country specified in §3 of the FREEDOM Support Act (22 U.S.C. 5801)," and "Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania." The countries specified in 22 U.S.C. 5801 are Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Moldova, Russia, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, Ukraine, and Uzbekistan.

²⁵ P.L. 108-447, 118 Stat. 3192, December 8, 2004.

²⁶ The Open World Leadership Center was discussed during the House hearing on the Library of Congress on February 26, 2015, but no Open World staff provided testimony.

²⁷ Available at <http://appropriations.house.gov/uploadedfiles/hrpt-114-hr-fy2016-legbranch.pdf>.

The Committee believes given our current fiscal environment, and in light of both the lack of quantifiable results from the Open World Leadership Center and its duplication of programs more appropriately offered by the State Department, the program has long outlived its short-term intent. The Committee has provided an allocation to be used for the orderly shutdown during fiscal year 2016 of the Open World Leadership Center.

An amendment offered by Representative Fortenberry at the full committee markup would add $4.7 million for Open World, offset from funding for the Architect of the Capitol, Capitol Power Plant budget. The operations of Open World, including assessments of its impact, were discussed prior to the adoption (by voice vote) of the amendment.

Ongoing Discussion of Location and Funding of Open World

The location and future of Open World, attempts to assess its effectiveness, and its inclusion in the legislative branch budget, have been discussed at appropriations hearings and in report language for more than a decade. The funding level for Open World has also varied greatly during this period, although it has decreased each year since FY2009.

For FY2015, the House committee recommended $3.4 million, while the Senate committee recommended $5.7 million. Both reports discussed the conflict in Ukraine and Open World's activities in the region. The FY2015 act provided $5.7 million.

For FY2014, the House subcommittee mark would have provided $1.0 million. An amendment to restore funding for Open World to the FY2013 post-sequester level was debated and withdrawn during the full committee markup. The House committee report stated,

For many years the Committee has had concern with the placement of the Open World Leadership Center (OWLC) in the Legislative Branch. The Committee understands the program has some strong champions on the Committee. However, with further reductions being made to every program within the Legislative Branch, the Committee has provided $1,000,000 to cover the cost associated with the shutdown of the OWLC. The Committee directs the Executive Director of the OWLC to retain any necessary prior year funds in the Trust to cover any cost in excess of the $1,000,000 provided in this bill be utilized for the orderly shutdown. The Executive Director is further directed that the program termination is to be finalized within one year of enactment of the Legislative Branch fiscal year 2014 appropriation bill.²⁸

The FY2014 Senate-reported bill would have provided $4.0 million, as well as a provision allowing the Librarian of Congress to transfer up to $6.0 million in nonappropriated funds to Open World. The final enacted FY2014 level was $6.0 million.

The FY2013 House-reported bill would have provided $1.0 million, a decrease of $9.0 million (-90.0%), from the $10.0 million provided in FY2012 and requested for FY2013. The House report stated that this funding level would “cover the cost associated with the shutdown” and directed that “the program termination is to be finalized within one year of enactment of the Legislative Branch fiscal year 2013 appropriations bill.”²⁹ H.Amdt. 1281, agreed to by recorded vote (204-203, Roll no. 373), eliminated this funding. At the Senate FY2013 budget request hearing on March 1, 2012, the subcommittee discussed potential options for increasing private funding, including the hire of a development professional. The Senate-reported bill would have provided $10.0 million. The FY2013 act provided $8.0 million, not including sequestration or the across-the-board rescission.³⁰

The House-passed FY2012 bill (H.R. 2551) would have provided $1.0 million, a decrease of 91.2% from FY2011. The House report stated, “The program has some strong champions on the Committee, but with reductions being made to most every program within the Federal budget the Committee has elected to shut down the program and recommends $1,000,000 for shutdown expenses.”³¹ The Senate-reported bill, in contrast, would have provided $10.0 million (-12.1%). The Senate report stated that “despite the fiscal constraints of the budget this program is necessary for the promotion of democratic principles in countries with historically oppressive rule.”³² The FY2012 act contained the Senate-reported level.

The FY2011 level of $11.4 million represented a decrease of $623,000 (-5.2%) from the $12.0 million provided for FY2010.

The FY2010 level represented a decrease of $1.9 million (-13.7%) from FY2009. Additionally, the FY2010 House Appropriations Committee report stated that “the Legislative Branch Subcommittee has been clear that it expects the Open World program to become financially independent of funding in this bill as soon as possible.”³³ This sentiment was also expressed in the conference report, which stated,

The conferees are fully supportive of expanded efforts of the Open World Center to raise private funding and expect this effort to reduce the requirements for funding from the Legislative Branch appropriations bill in future years. The Committees look forward to a report of progress being made by the Center’s fundraising program prior to hearings on its fiscal year 2011 budget request.³⁴

The FY2009 level of $13.9 million was a $4.92 million increase (+54.8%) from FY2008. The location within the legislative branch was discussed during a hearing on the FY2009 budget. Ambassador John O’Keefe, the executive director of Open World, testified that the program may attract different participants if associated with the executive branch rather than the Library of Congress, which may be seen as more neutral and nonpartisan.³⁵ The FY2009 explanatory statement directed the Open World Leadership Center Board of Trustees to work with the State Department and the judiciary to establish a shared funding mechanism.³⁶

The $8.98 million provided in FY2008 represented a decrease of $4.88 million (-35.2%) from the $13.86 million provided in FY2007 and FY2006. The location of Open World was also discussed during the FY2008 appropriations cycle,³⁷ and language was included in the FY2008 Consolidated Appropriations Act requiring Open World to prepare a report by March 31, 2008, on “potential options for transfer of the Open World Leadership Center to a department or agency in the executive branch, establishment of the Center as an independent agency in the executive branch, or other appropriate options.”³⁸

In 2004, GAO issued a report on the Open World program, examining program participation, purpose, and accountability.³⁹

John C. Stennis Center for Public Service Training and Development

The center was created by Congress in 1988 to encourage public service by congressional staff through training and development programs.⁴⁰ The center requested $430,000 for FY2016, the same as provided in the FY2015 and FY2014 acts and proposed in the FY2016 House-reported bill.

General Provisions

As in past years, the budget request contained a number of recurring general provisions, including those that would

- prohibit appropriated funds for the maintenance and care of private vehicles;
- limit funds to FY2016 unless otherwise expressly provided;
- make any changes in rates of compensation and designation permanent;
- make consulting services contracts a matter of public record;
- authorize the costs of Legislative Branch Financial Managers Council (LBPMC);
- authorize landscape maintenance by the AOC in a specified area;
- limit transfers to those authorized by law; and ³⁶ Congressional Record, February 23, 2009, p. H2398.

³⁷ In H.R. 2771 (110th Cong.), the House-passed version of the FY2008 appropriations bill, the House Appropriations Committee recommended $6.0 million for Open World. The committee report stated that an additional $6.0 million would be provided for transfer to the program in the FY2008 State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs appropriation. The House-passed bill, which retained the committee-recommended funding level, also contained an administrative provision transferring the Open World Leadership Center to the Department of State effective October 1, 2008. The Senate-reported bill (S. 1686, 110th Cong.) would have provided $13.5 million in new budget authority for Open World.

- prohibit restrictions on guided staff tours of the Capitol with limited exceptions.

There is also one new provision that would

- authorize battery recharging stations in parking areas under the jurisdiction of the Librarian of Congress.

The House-reported bill contains all of these general provisions. It also contains

- a provision prohibiting a cost of living adjustment for Members of Congress in FY2016. Members of Congress last received a pay adjustment in January 2009. Absent either a statutory prohibition for Member pay or automatic limitations related to the General Schedule (GS), Members would receive a maximum of 1.7%, or $3,000, in January 2016. The legislative branch bill does not contain language funding or increasing Member pay, and a provision prohibiting the automatic Member pay adjustments could be included in any bill, or be introduced as a separate bill; and
- a provision establishing a spending reduction account.
