Updated January 2, 2025

From January 7 to January 9, 2025, President James Earl “Jimmy” Carter, Jr., is scheduled to lie in state in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda. In a December 30, 2024, joint letter, House and Senate leaders announced the intent to have President Carter lie in state.

President Carter is scheduled to be the 43rd individual to lie in state or honor in the Capitol Rotunda or National Statuary Hall. Prior to President Carter, the most recent individual to lie in state in the Capitol Rotunda was Senator Harry Reid, on January 12, 2022, and the most recent individual to lie in state in National Statuary Hall was Representative Donald Young, on March 29, 2022. The most recent individual to lie in honor was Colonel Ralph Puckett, Jr., on April 29, 2024.

Lying in State v. Honor

Lying in State

Current or former government officials (e.g., Member of Congress, President, Vice President); military leaders; unknown servicemembers from World War I, World War II, the Korean War, and the Vietnam era.

Lying in Honor

Other Honorees

Of the 42 individuals to have lain in state or honor to date (excluding four unknown soldiers from World War I, World War II, Korea, and Vietnam who lay in state), 17 did not serve in Congress (see Table 1). Figure 1 shows President and Chief Justice William Howard Taft lying in state on March 11, 1930.

Since President Lincoln’s death in 1865, the caskets of most individuals who have lain in state or honor have rested on the Lincoln catafalque. The Lincoln catafalque is a platform constructed in 1865 “to support the casket of Abraham Lincoln while the president’s body lay in state in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda.”

Authorization Process

When an individual lies in state or honor in the Rotunda—a space jointly controlled by the House of Representatives and the Senate—a concurrent resolution is often used to authorize the event. For example, for Representative John Lewis in July 2020, two concurrent resolutions (H.Con.Res. 106—use of the Lincoln Catafalque; and H.Con.Res. 105—use of the Rotunda) were agreed to. In at least one instance, for President Gerald Ford, Congress was out of session and a concurrent resolution was not adopted.

When an individual lies in state or honor in National Statuary Hall, a space controlled by the House of Representatives, the Speaker often announces the event through a press release. For example, in September 2020, Justice Ginsburg lay in state in National Statuary Hall and Speaker Pelosi issued a press release to announce the occasion.

Non-Members of Congress Lying in State or Honor

President Carter is scheduled to be the 18th individual to lie in state or honor who was not also a Member of Congress. Additionally, four unknown soldiers (World War I, World War II, Korea, and Vietnam) have lain in state. Table 1 lists the individuals who have lain in state or honor who did not serve as Members of Congress, the date of their death, the date of lying in state or honor, and the positions they held in government, if any.
